DEDICATION

MRS. PAULINE GUNTER

To Mrs. Pauline Gunter, Annual Sponsor and Advisor, we of the Senior Class of 1950-51 dedicate this yearbook. Her devotion to duty and desire for hard work has inspired us to greater heights. In the same spirit with which she helped us we return this book to her.

Affectionately,
The Senior Class

PRINCIPAL

To The Student Body:

School is one of the most important adventures of a child's life. Problems face him which seem to be mountains too steep to climb, but eventually he gains the top and looks down upon his years of work, thinking perhaps, of the victory just won. Fondly and with deep regret he will leave his school to take a place in life. The place has been determined by his progress in school and how well the school has prepared him to meet that life.

As your principal, my duty, and the duty of each faculty member is to work toward establishing a school which will increase its power through an even broader curriculum to help you meet life, face problems squarely, and be an asset to the society in which you live.

This year has been trying in many ways for you, but with God's help may the future years find us approaching our goals.

Clyde W. Aswell

Clyde W. Aswell

REMEMBRANCE

To Mr. D. W. Swanner:

We wish to express our appreciation to you for your loyalty and continuous service as principal of our school in the past. We will recognize you as one of the strongest spokes in our wheel of education.

We would like to bestow up on you our best wishes for success in everything you attempt to do.

Sincerely,
The Faculty and Students

SENIOR WILL

- I, Nell Anderson, will my croquet mallet to Margie Nell Ware, who'll keep up the racket.
- I, Fannie Jo Beatty, will my intelligence to Jessie Jones to help him with his elegance.
- I, Donald Cox, will my ability to give orders to the next president of the next Senior Class.
- I, Wayne Duck, will my "don't care" attitude to Pearl Mae Norman, who should be more carefree.
- I, Emma Jean Harvey, will my extra chin to J. F. Woods. May it be a help.
- I, Kathryn Jimmerson, will my brooms to anyone who will keep the school clean.
- I, Evelyn Moser, will my English book and midnight oil to Doris Adcock. May it be a stimulant.
- I, Francis Lee Norman, will my laziness to Jimmy Gilbert, an ambitious chap.
- I, Betty Paul Oxford, will my helpful ways to Melba Stewart. May it help her through the days.
- I, Barbara Peters, will my place on the team to Betty Sue Turner, who'll keep up the good work.
- I, Marvin Poda, will my good nature to Mrs. Gunter to balance her appreciativeness.
- I, Wilma Ricks, will my dancing ability to Dereline Poda. May it be a reducing agent.
- I, Charles Simmons, will my Texan look to Leonard Johnson to match his cowboy characteristics.
- I, Ruth Simmons, will my ability to stand in with the boys to anyone who can stand the noise.
- I, Elton Turner, will the sawdust in my head to Brother David to correspond with that he has already.
- I, Felton Turner, will my basketball to Pete Alderman, who can take the falls.
- I, Dorothy Upton, will my freckles to Ruby Marie Bullock to blend with her's.
- I, Maude Helen Vail, will my talking ability to Douglas Norred—another big mouth.
- I, Emily Watts, will my seat in the English Room to Alice Ann Garlington who'll still be around.
